

Cases last 7 days	Cumulative cases
198	6,592
97	1,923
68	1,199
37	1,059
37	761
33	849
18	354
15	740
12	823
12	347
11	256
10	243
8	299
8	129
6	163
6	125
6	110
5	75
4	521
4	89
3	43
2	298
2	99
2	64
2	26
2	21
1	139
1	103
1	61
1	54
1	51
1	32
1	28
1	24
0	75
0	54
0	16
0	15
0	Less than 5

Resources

Department of Health hotline:
(401) 222-8022.

Department of Labor and Training hotline: (401) 462-2020 or by email: dlt.covid19@dlt.ri.gov

Small business hotline: (401) 521-HELP or by email at info@commerceri.com

Multilingual hotline for Central Falls, Pawtucket residents: (855) 843-7620

BH Link for behavioral health services: (401) 414-LINK (5465), or (855) KID-LINK for those under 18: <https://www.bhlink.org/>

NAMI-RI mental health education for families: <https://namirhode-island.org/meetings-scs/clshedulees/>

To volunteer: <http://www.riresponds.org>

To connect frontline workers with lodging: <http://rihavens.com/>

To donate to help vulnerable Rhode Islanders: <https://rifoundation.org/funds/covid-19-response-fund>

To suggest a resource for this list, email newstips@providencejournal.com observed for weeks. The state will be "out in force" starting Friday to enforce the new 11 p.m. closing curfew, she said, and if the situation continues, she threatened to shut down establishments.

"I have been trying week after week to avoid this," she said. Based on what unfolds starting Friday, the verdict on shutdowns will be